

Need For The Programme

Proper understanding of the legal environment in which an organization is functioning is sine qua non for its success. In case of housing, this aspect has added importance as there are number of laws enacted by Union and the State which, directly or indirectly, affect this activity. Several initiatives have been taken in the recent past to liberalize the legal and regulatory regime to give a boost to housing. It is the endeavour of NHB to disseminate the understanding and knowledge pertaining to legal framework in housing.
