

Programme on Preventive Vigilance at NHB Ranchi

National Housing Bank, Ranchi Regional Office organized an event on "Preventive Vigilance - Business Ethics and Governance" at its office premises on 05.11.2024. The programme was aligned to the theme 'Culture of integrity for nation's prosperity'.

The event was graced by Dr. Neeraj Kumar Chaturvedi (Chief Manager - Bank of India) and Sh. Surendra Kumar (Vigilance Officer - Canara Bank) as guest speakers. The speakers deliberated about purpose, dos and don'ts, measures etc. in context of preventive vigilance. The speakers shared their views on transparency, banking ethics, corporate governance and the role of preventive vigilance in our daily lives. Topics like frauds in housing finance sector, vigilance case studies, integrity and accountability were also discussed by the speakers. It was emphasized that among other aspects; social and educative measures should form a part of preventive vigilance actions. Participants of the programme were encouraged to promote a vigilant culture which highlights continuous improvements in institutional internal systems and to facilitate improvement of processes and practices.

15 officials from Housing Finance Companies/Banks participated in the event.
