

Event on Preventive Vigilance by Raipur Regional Office

As part of Vigilance Awareness Week 2024, the Raipur Regional Office, National Housing Bank organized an online program on "Preventive Vigilance" on November 12, 2024. The occasion was honored by the esteemed presence of Sh. Mukesh Pandya, Assistant General Manager of State Bank of India (SBI), as the guest speaker. During his address, he emphasized upon the imperative role of preventive vigilance in promoting a culture of transparency, integrity, and accountability within organizations. He also stressed upon different functions of vigilance and how an organization get impacted if vigilance is compromised.

The event witnessed the participation of around 30 officials from various Housing Finance Companies (HFCs). During the event participants enthusiastically engaged in discussion on aspects of preventive vigilance and legal framework around it.

The event not only highlighted the importance of vigilance but also encouraged the participants to combine the principles of preventive vigilance into their organizational frameworks, contributing to a more transparent and accountable workplace.
